About Optii Solutions

With hotel industry roots dating back to the early 1990s, when Optii Solutions founder Soenke Weiss recognized the absence of housekeeping management technology in the early 2000s, he set out to apply revenue management principles to room attendant functions. The approach quickly achieved payroll improvements of over 20 percent in a proof-of-concept trial at a large Australian resort. Today, Optii Solutions, a venture capital-backed and debt-free company, is the world's leading innovator in developing housekeeping management software.
